

Feadship Samadhi sold in off market transaction

Hoofddorp, 11 March 2026 – Feadship Resale announces the successful sale of 60.96-metre Samadhi. The transaction was concluded under a joint central listing after the owner appointed Feadship Resale and Michael Mahan of Worth Avenue Yachts, with the yacht sold off market shortly after.

At the time of sale, Samadhi was located in Phuket, Thailand. Following the agreement, the yacht embarked on a 9,000 nautical mile voyage to the Feadship yard in Amsterdam, where she was prepared for delivery to her new owner. The passage was completed without delay, reflecting the professionalism of the crew and the reliability associated with a Feadship.

As part of the transition, the yacht will undergo a refit tailored to the preferences of the incoming owner, allowing Samadhi to begin her next chapter of ownership.

Originally delivered in 2006 as April Fool, the yacht later reappeared on the market under her current name, Samadhi. Her latest sale and upcoming refit illustrates the long term relationship between Feadship and the yachts it creates.

Each new stage forms part of the ongoing Feadship continuum, where build, ownership transitions and the involvement of the yard remain closely connected over time.
